A business card stampback reads: "Disney World, Elongated Coins, ZZZCOINS.COM, Disneyland". ZZZCoins reports that the run was limited to 300 copper pennies plus 25 each of dimes, nickels, and quarters to be sold with pennies as denomination sets -no additional coins will be made. Coins in this set were commissioned by ZZZCOINS.com in honor of the Disneyland Viewliner Train of Tomorrow which was first operational at Disneyland on June 10, 1957 until only September 30, 1958. Because the coin die was engraved by C&J Engraving and rolled by Don Cade exclusively for the good folks at ZZZ Coins, none were ever vended from a public coin press machine. They were first introduced for sale on the ZZZCoins.com website Christmas day, 2021. LADIES & GENTLEMEN, image of Disney castle, BOYS & GIRLS, dot border inside of a wire border, letters "DC" near the coin grip for Donald Cade. (Same obverse die as the DT0027 with a special ZZZCoins.com stampback.) This theme memorializes the long-time traditional pre-show or rope drop greeting of "Ladies and Gentlemen, boys and girls..." was reportedly replaced by "Dreamers of all ages" sometime in early 2021. The new greeting is said to better conform with Disney's diversity and inclusion goals. The coins in this set feature a special business card Disney World, Elongated Coins, ZZZCOINS.COM, Disneyland reverse or stampbackstampback which reads: "Disney World, Elongated Coins, ZZZCOINS.COM, Disneyland". ZZZCoins reports the initial run of pennies is about 230 cents (all copper) and 15 each of nickels, dimes and quarters has been rolled. Other coin types are known including half dollar, Ecuador 100 sucres, dollar coins, steel cent and One Agora which were pressed for private collections only. Some additional coin types may have been pressed for issue or as experimental test rolls. Additional coins may be rolled if additional coins are needed before October of 2023. Otherwise the edition will close at that time. (We hope to update total issue numbers in late 2023.) Because the coin die was engraved by C&J Engraving and rolled by Don Cade exclusively for the good folks at ZZZ Coins, no coins were ever vended from a public coin press machine. Coins were made available for sale and as promotional incentives as well as for sale for a limited time at ZZZCoins.com. First reported in early December of 2022.

This may be one of my favorite elongated coins. :-) As were other coins in this Don's Tributes guide, the DT0031 was designed, commissioned and made by the well-known "Thank You Boomer" presentation pieceelongated coin collector and roller, Donald Cade. The coin was first shown publicly at the March 18, 2023 TEC Meet held at Yorba Regional Park, Anahiem California. About mid-meet Don made a surprise presentation of an amazing gift to "Boomer". It was a framed set including the canceled coin die engraved "Thank you Boomer from the Parkpennies.com visitors and Disneyland Elongated Collectors" with example pressed coins (both canceled and not canceled) over a plaque that read "Presented to Boomer, March 18, 2023, from the parkpennies.com visitors". An extensive group of coin types pressed on the DT0031 coin die accompanied the presentation piece given to Boomer (Robert Hoff). Don Cade also gave all attendees of this meet a sample of this very limited elongated coin, both canceled and uncanceled pressed on Ecuador 100 Sucres coins. Don reports that he rolled 40 coins for the meet. Because these coins were exclusively pressed and offered by the roller, they were never offered via a public coin press machine.
